Taylor Amanda Burton, Director

Matty the Elf has been a character on my mind for a long time. She started out as someone watching a telephone, but as her story grew, so did she. Matty the Elf is an important story of listening to yourself, respecting your mental health, and advocating for who you are. I'm very proud of the work our (entirely youth) cast has put into this production and into making my work come to life! Please enjoy the show!

Ryanne Chadbolt | Stage Manager

This is Ryanne's third year helping out with the Christmas show. It is something she looks forward to and loves the holiday cheer the shows bring. She is proud of the work that's been done this year to bring the show to life, and hopes everyone enjoys the show!

Kai | Assistant Stage Manager

Kai is a member of the crew. They have been involved in several plays, but this is their first play with the Nose Creek Players, and they are eagerly anticipating future products! When not at the theatre, Kai spends their time fostering cats.

Synopsis

Seeking bigger and better things from life, Matty the Elf quits her toy crafting job and seeks an opportunity in the big leagues. When a telephone monitoring job in Santa's headquarters lands in her lap, her first day turns upside down when she's thrown into a web of the North Pole's biggest and darkest secrets.
